

Tiedemann Wealth Management Wins 2016 PAM Award for Best Trust and Estates Division

NEW YORK, NY – March 1, 2016 - Tiedemann Wealth Management is proud to announce that it has been awarded “Best Trust and Estates Division” by Private Asset Management (PAM) Magazine for 2016. The award was presented at PAM’s Awards Ceremony held in New York on February 22, 2016. The PAM Awards recognize and reward those who have provided exceptional advice and service to wealthy families in an increasingly complex economic environment.

Tiedemann was selected for this award by an independent panel of industry experts who judged each of the nominees based on expertise, innovation, and capability in providing clients with an effective strategy for managing their assets. This year’s award continues to build on Tiedemann’s track record of success with previous PAM awards including: Best Wealth Manager – Client Service and Best Private Wealth Manager over $5 billion.

“We are honored to be recognized by our peers for our unwavering commitment to providing integrated wealth management services that are as unique as our clients, and always evolving to address the constantly changing economic climate.” said Craig Smith, President of Tiedemann Wealth Management. “Our company was built to meet the multigenerational needs of our clients. Our Delaware Trust Company was built on that strong foundation by offering flexible trust services and utilizing all applicable trust laws to access a broad range of traditional and non-traditional investments to enhance trust performance and income generation.”
