

Tiedemann Wealth Management Wins Prestigious Best Outsourced CIO Award from Family Wealth Report

NEW YORK – March 7, 2017 – Tiedemann Wealth Management (Tiedemann), a privately owned investment and wealth advisor, announced today that it has been awarded the prestigious 2017 Best Outsourced CIO Award by Family Wealth Report.

The Best Outsourced CIO Award recognizes outstanding achievement, performance and innovation as an Outsourced CIO among firms who provide fiduciary investment management to high-net-worth clients on a fully discretionary basis. Tiedemann was selected for the award by an independent panel of experts drawn from private banks and trusted advisors/consultants, and supported by relevant third-party organizations.

“We are proud to be recognized by an independent panel of industry experts as the top outsourced CIO and for our innovative approach to investment strategy, portfolio construction and risk management,” said Michael Tiedemann, Chief Executive Officer. “It is particularly rewarding to receive this award at a time in history where more fluid and dynamic changes are shaping the wealth management industry than ever before.”

The award was proudly accepted by TWM’s Managing Director, Andrew Douglass at the 2017 Family Wealth Report Awards gala dinner on Thursday, March 2, 2017, held at The Mandarin Oriental in New York City.
